JULY BUSINESS SERVICES ANNOUNCES ENHANCED STADION STORYLINE 401(K) SOLUTION

Watkinsville, Ga., February 25, 2020 – Stadion Money Management, an independent managed account provider, today announced that July Business Services (JULY), a leading national retirement plan provider, now offers the ability for participants to have a more personalized investment allocation in their 401(k) through StoryLine, Stadion’s Managed Account service. Stadion’s deep integration with JULY allows participants to have a more personalized portfolio, specific to their individual factors and retirement goals. In addition, advisors who offer StoryLine through JULY now have the flexibility of using the plan sponsor’s existing plan lineup or selecting StoryLine, built with SPDR® ETFs.

JULY provides custom plan design and hands-on services for plan setup, operation and administration. The firm is one of the nation’s premier independent retirement plan recordkeepers with a long history of high-touch service, plan design expertise, investment flexibility and advanced technology.

“We are thrilled that July Business Services is adding flexibility for advisors and plan sponsors in their managed account offering,” said Jud Doherty, President & CEO of Stadion Money Management. “JULY and Stadion share similar views on the necessity for customized participant-level retirement solutions and we believe offering participants the opportunity to further personalize their 401(k) accounts will lead to better retirement outcomes.”

StoryLine is a professionally managed investment service that provides customization at the plan level based on employee demographics and a personalized investment allocation tailored to participants based on their individual characteristics and preferences. StoryLine offers participants an easy-to-use experience, ongoing communications and call center support.

“We are pleased to enhance our personalized participant managed account solution on our open architecture retirement platform,” said John Humphrey, JULY’s President and CEO. “Stadion’s experience and approach to simplifying participant investing aligns nicely with JULY’s strategy of making retirement planning easy for employers and participants.”
