Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) Packet

Understanding Required Minimum Distributions - FAQ

Factors that determine when a participant begins taking an RMD

RBD - Required Beginning Date :

- The RBD is the date by which minimum distributions must commence to a participant:
 - Age 70 ½ active participant is 5% owner
 - Age 70 ½ active participant that is related to an employee who is 5% owner of the company
 - Age 70 ½ Terminated/Retired participant with a remaining balance in the plan
- When does an individual reach age 70 1/2 :
 - Six months after 70th birthday

RMD- Required Minimum Distribution:

- The amount that must be distributed each year once participant reaches the age of 70 ½ and has met a RBD status:
 - Active participant is 5% owner or related to a 5% owner
 - Terminated/Retired with remaining balance in the plan
- You must receive at least the minimum amount required for each year starting with the year participant reaches age 70 1/2.

Participant is still employed at age 70 1/2:

- No RBD while employed (will begin once participant terminates/retires form employment)
- Any distribution taken is considered an In-Service withdrawal and is taxed at 20% because they are eligible for Rollover.
- Can Rollover any amounts at any time to an IRA.

Participant is still employed at age 70 1/2 and is a 5% Owner :

- RBD begins after attaining age 70 ½, the RBD is April 1 following the close of the calendar year in which attained age 70 ½.
- Must take RMD each year.
- Any additional funds withdrawn are taxed at 20% because they are eligible for Rollover.

Participants has terminated employment and funds are remaining in the plan:

- RBD begins after attaining age 70 ½, the RBD is April 1 following the close of the calendar year in which attained age 70 ½
- Must take RMD each year.
- Any additional funds withdrawn are taxed at 20% because they are eligible for Rollover.
- Can Rollover to an IRA all or part of the remaining funds after the RMD has been withdrawn.
